(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) London, June 10, (12:59 p. m.)—Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons this afternoon that a further vote of credit would be discussed on Tuesday of next week.

It is understood that the new vote will be for £250,000,000 or £300,000,000.

London, June 10, (1:33 p. m.)—The total number of men for the army and navy sanctioned by parliament for service so far in the present war is 3,200,000.

"This number will not be exceeded without authority of parliament," said Premier Asquith today, thus settling at rest rumors that other forces had been mobilized without public knowledge.

London, June 10, (12:52 p. m.)—A report reaching between the lines of the various official announcements of the last twelve hours leads British observers of the situation on the continent to the belief that the wounded Russians have been successful in gaining a breathing space along the eastern front. A statement from Petrograd says 2,900 Austrian-German prisoners have been taken by a series of counter attacks near Przemysl.

At various points along the Isonzo river sharp fighting has occurred and several successes for the Italians are announced, but it is conceded the Austrians still hold dominating positions on the right, or west bank of the river.

Uninterrupted successes for the Austrians and Germans in Galicia are claimed in Vienna, where it is said the advance south of the Dniester is continuing. In central Galicia and the Baltic provinces, however, the Russians apparently are resisting the advances with more success.

A Berlin dispatch concedes the Germans lost one vessel, a collier in the Baltic engagement of last week and that a destroyer was damaged. It is asserted in Petrograd that a German transport and torpedo boat were sunk.

is estimated that 1,000,000 men are operating toward Lemberg and 300,000 against the Dniester river, all plentifully supplied with ammunition. In the Shadz district where the Russians are advancing, the Germans have raised their forces to four and one-half army corps, establishing superiority of numbers.

It would appear evident that the Russians have met the first difficult problem of their invasion of Austria in their endeavor to cross the Isonzo although they claim to have a foothold at some places on both banks.

RUSSIANS PREPARE TO TAKE OFFENSIVE IN GALICIA

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) London, June 10, (12:59 p. m.)—A dispatch from Vienna, which the Tribune says information has been received there from Tarlow, Galicia, that the Russian forces in the region north of Przemysl are preparing a new attack upon the army of General von Maassen. They have abandoned their efforts to strike southward and have turned toward the Wisla river.

Between Nisko, which is 60 miles northwest of Przemysl, and Ujgorod, to the east of Nisko, an engagement already has occurred. The dispatch says 20,000 Russians were attacked by strong Austrian forces retired, leaving about 1,000 dead and wounded.

ITALIAN ARMY NOW WITHIN SIGHT OF TRIESTE

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) London, June 10, (12:59 p. m.)—Italian troops having occupied Montfalcione, are within sight of Triest.

The occupation of Montfalcione is regarded of great importance, less than a score of miles from Triest, its possession giving the Italians control of the chief railway junction of that region.

AUSTRIANS ABANDON ONE OF MOST IMPORTANT POSTS

(By Evening Herald Leased Wire) London, June 10, (12:59 p. m.)—The Italian troops which are invading Austria through the Alps are advancing rapidly.

The recovery by the Germans of some of their lost ground in the Baltic provinces proves how numerous are their spare troops even today. It

HARVEY B. FERGUSON, ONE OF NEW MEXICO'S STRONGEST MEN IS CLAIMED BY DEATH TODAY

END COMES EARLY THIS MORNING WITHOUT A WARNING

THE LATE HARVEY B. FERGUSON

HIS SPLENDID RECORD OF PUBLIC SERVICE

To Him Belongs Credit for First Great Grant of Land from Congress on Which School System Is Founded.

Harvey B. Ferguson, former delegate in congress from the territory of New Mexico, and twice elected to congress by the state, died at his home in Old Albuquerque shortly after 5 o'clock this morning, a stroke of apoplexy being the direct cause of death. Mr. Ferguson has been in failing health for some time, and following his return from Washington a few weeks ago he entered a local sanitarium for treatment. It was known to his immediate family and to a few close friends that his condition was serious, but it was not believed to be critical. The sudden end this morning, therefore, came as a shock both to his family and to the whole community in which he has made his home for so long, and for which he has performed such notable service. Mr. Ferguson was 67 years old.

At the conclusion of his term of service as member of the thirty-third congress, retiring as one of the strongest men in that body and with the close friendship and high esteem of the president, cabinet members and his associates in the house of representatives, Mr. Ferguson instead of taking the rest which his arduous congressional work had made necessary, undertook the difficult post of private secretary to William Jennings Bryan. He carried the exacting duties of this difficult post until his health made it absolutely necessary for him to take a rest and he came home to Albuquerque for that purpose, intending later to resume his interrupted law practice here.

Best known as the author of and chief force in the enactment of the Ferguson land grant act of 1890, by which the schools of New Mexico received 5,000,000 acres of land, and on which grant our public school system is based, Mr. Ferguson had practically a lifetime behind him of distinguished and highly useful public service. He had been a resident of New Mexico for thirty-three years, thirty of which had been as a citizen of Albuquerque. His death has caused deep sorrow not only in Albuquerque but throughout the length and breadth of New Mexico, for he was possessed probably of a greater number of warm personal friends than any other man in the state.

Mr. Ferguson is survived by his wife, who was with him at the end, and by two daughters, Erna and Luisa, and two sons, Harvey B. Ferguson, Jr., and Francis. None of the four children are in Albuquerque, although all are on their way. Mr. Ferguson's condition had not been considered serious enough to warrant summoning them home.

Body Will Lie in State.

Mr. Ferguson's remains will be taken to Los Angeles tomorrow evening, for cremation. The funeral service will be brief and simple, and will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Strong Brothers chapel North Second street. Rev. Hugh A. Cooper, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the service.
